

Discussion Questions for “The Speed Test”

- 1.) When graduating from college, potential students must try to convince firms they are the best candidate to hire. What are three things a brand new college graduate could do to send positive signals to employers in the hiring process?
- 2.) In “The Speed Test”, Millie is forced to undergo a test. By providing a test prior to hiring her, the employer (Mr. Graydon) is said to be “screening”. What are other ways that employers screen to make sure they hire good employees?
